LEADER IN VACATION VILLA RENTALS IN PUERTO VALLARTA, CANCUN, AND PLAYA DEL CARMEN LAUNCHES NEWLY REDESIGNED WEBSITE

Portland, Oregon - 2009-10-08 - WWW.VILLASANDCONDOS.COM went live today with their new site design. Built to make vacation villa and condo rental searches easier www.villasandcondos.com is new, bright, and easier to use for both travelers looking to find their dream beach side paradise accommodations and for property owners who would like increased rental revenue from their beach property.

The story begins in 1990 when Chris Toppen, founder of www.VillasAndCondos.com, first started his career in the travel industry - managing a 15 agent office in Washington State that specialized in luxury travel. Seeing quickly a need for private villa and condo rentals, Chris implemented a plan which saw the creation of a special department within his agency to specifically deal with the rising demand by travelers and property owners. Chris implemented a Villas and Condos department within the travel agency in 1992. In 1998, after many successful years running his agency and consulting with several internet based travel companies, he decided to focus on the specialized area of villa and condo travel exclusively. By early 1999 www.villasandcondos.com was online and was soon connecting vacation property owners and travelers to the tune of more than 1.5 million dollars in bookings per year.

Focusing on Puerto Vallarta, Playa Del Carmen, and Cancun www.VillasAndCondos.com is the top travel choice for those cities and other locations including Cozumel, Manzanillo, Maui, Kauai, The Island of Hawaii, Oahu and (coming soon) Costa Rica you will find a vacation villa or condo that is just what you imagine for your vacation.

And you can be certain, being one of the first private villa and condo companies on the Internet, www.VillasAndCondos.com has the experience and knowledge to find you the perfect rental for your vacation, honeymoon, or wedding.

Now with a newly redesigned website and fresh marketing plan launched Chris and his team are taking their service to the next level for both property owners and travelers. See for yourself at www.VillasAndCondos.com.

We truly live up to our slogan: Luxury Vacation Rentals for EVERY Budget.
